GoBus from Dublin to Galway.ie link <http://www.gobus.ie/>

Dublin - There are numerous buses that we can get to the airport:

see <https://www.dublinairport.com/to-from-the-airport/by-bus>

We will probably get the 747 or 757 <http://www.dublinbus.ie/en/Your-Journey1/Timetables/Airport-Services/>

747 Bus - every 15 mins <http://www.dublinbus.ie/Your-Journey1/Timetables/All-Timetables/74711/>

757 Bus - every 30 mins <http://www.dublinbus.ie/Your-Journey1/Timetables/All-Timetables/747111/>

Left Luggage in Dublin:

On the return trip some of us want to get off at the Dublin GoBus stop at 9, Eden Quay. We then want to deposit our luggage. There are numerous left luggage locations. see:

<https://bagbnb.com/luggage-storage/dublin?lat=53.3498053&lng=-6.260309699999993&s=Dublin%2C+Ireland>

The probable best one is Trinity College which is 50metres from the bus stop that takes you to the airport, and very close to the GoBus station

Galway Corrib Village - Free Shuttle Bus Service to/from City Centre

See <https://www.campusaccommodation.ie/summer-visitors/facilities/>

Our shuttle bus departs Corrib Village reception every hour on the hour and picks up opposite the Coach Station on Fairgreen Road (adjacent to the Tourist Office) on the half-hour. If you're arriving to Galway by train or bus, please avail of this service to bring you to Corrib Village. Please note that spaces are allocated on a first-come-first-served basis and times below are subject to change.
